

(Senior) Consultant (all genders) Individual Swiss Tax Services – Tax & Legal

Your future mission? Facilitate international mobility for global organisations

With the ever-increasing focus on global compliance by tax authorities, the timely management and compliant delivery of compensation and payroll is becoming more and more important – and this is where your expertise comes into play.

As a (Senior) Consultant in our Global Employer Services (GES) team, you will provide multi-national companies with targeted advice and strategies for running Global Mobility programs in an efficient manner. Our team supports clients with end-to-end management of global compensation for internationally mobile employees and with local Swiss payroll and shadow payroll solutions.

How you can make an impact

- Enrich us in working on the Swiss taxation offering and service delivery
- Be a part of our Swiss Tax team, and manage compliance topics, tax reviews, and tax briefings
- Successfully maintain contact with our diversified client portfolio in an international environment – since you are a cosmopolitan and very good with people
- Enjoy a perfect surrounding to bring in your creative skills, based on our customer base with projects which have a constant international flavour

Who we are looking for

- You are keen to learn and develop, like to challenge the status quo, interested in the broader context of what you do and work independently, efficiently and solution oriented
- A Bachelor/Master degree in economics or law
- Several years of tax experience in the area of individual taxation on a reviewer level
- Fluent English and German, any further languages would be an advantage, but not essential

Your team

You will become part of a diverse, multinational and highly motivated team at our Zurich or Basel office. Your future colleagues of all business lines will help you to grow both personally and professionally. Customized trainings, mentoring programmes, and on-the-job learning will have their share in your success story as well.
