

Sports ID Regulations of the University Sports Basel

The present regulations refer to the sports ID for University Sports; holders of a personal UNICard for the University of Basel do not need a sports ID.

1. The groups entitled to receive a sports ID are listed in the eligibility.
2. To be issued with a sports ID, simply bring current evidence (see eligibility) to the University Sports secretary's office (Kollegienhaus, Office 025, Petersplatz 1, 4001 Basel). Sports IDs with costs must be paid upon registration.
3. The sports ID is issued for each semester (including the following semester break). The sports ID is not automatically renewed after expiry.
4. The sports ID is personal and cannot be transferred.
5. The sports ID must be presented for on-site registrations and in case of access controls. Admission to University Sports activities is only possible with a valid sports ID.
6. The sports ID does not include course and competition fees. These are to be paid additionally.
7. There is no claim for reimbursement of the costs of the sports ID. The sports ID cannot be deposited in case of accident, illness, holidays or other absences.
8. Sports IDs from other university sports organizations do not entitle the holder to participate in University Sports Basel.
