

Research Fund of University of Basel

Leaflet for application by excellent early career researchers

The complete application including letters of support must be submitted in paper form (loose pages, single sided) by 12-00 pm the relevant submission date of 01.02. or 01.09. to the Ressort Nachwuchsförderung

Incomplete or late submissions will not be taken into consideration.

→ University of Basel, Office of the Vicepresident for Research, Ressort Nachwuchsförderung, Petersgraben 35/3, Postfach 2148, 4001 Basel

Entry on the Grants Tool till 15.01. / 15.08. With this you submit the online request for the departmental confirmation. As soon as it has been confirmed you will be provided with the link to the online application form	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Login via www.grants.unibas.ch In case you cannot access the page please contact nachwuchsfoerderung@unibas.ch and mention your name, position, employment's address, phone, department, mail You as applicant are the Principal Investigator (=applicant) Please check whether you department entry is correct For the financial information please choose form called University of Basel Forschungsfonds: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Postdoc max. CHF 80'000 (incl. employee and employer contributions) for max. 24 months Finishing funding for the doctorate: 87% of the current SNSF salary (incl. employee and employer contributions) for max. 12 months If applying for the salary of a coworker following confirmations are needed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> working place at the University of Basel / University Hospital of Basel the continuing financing of the doctoral candidate to the end of the studies must be guaranteed (part of the departmental confirmation) minimal project costs (max. 10% of the total funding amount) essential for the project's execution copy the award letter if additional financial support has been obtained
B Online Form	Please click on the submitted link. Fill the form duly, print and sign it (corresponds to „Cover Sheet“ of your application documents)
C Application documents	Application documents (the below listed points are binding and are a formal requirement for a successful application). Documents can be submitted in German or English (French). In case of a successful application the earliest project start is possible as of 01.05. or 01.12.
Cover sheet	This is the printed and duly signed online form
Justification	Why do you apply to the Research Fund? (in particular including information of other financial support)
Curriculum Vitae	CV (including teaching experience, involvement in the university, scientific management, and if relevant family commitments, mobility)
Career plans	Plans for the future academic career
Publications	Publication list
Academic certificates	Copies of your academic certificates from BA level and later
Scientific part	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Summary (max. ½ page) Project description, 5 – max. 10 pages, structured and with the following subtitles: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Description of the field of investigation (state of research and own involvement in the area) Problems, methods, aims Research plan (including time scale, if appropriate identifying cooperations and partners) Available resources (equipment, rooms, staff: finances) Importance of the project (if the project is a part of a larger study in the same research group the individual contribution must be clearly recognizable. A postdoc project must differ significantly from the topic of the doctoral thesis)
Budget	Please comment on your budget in the application and enclose the printout of your budget entered to the Grants Tool.
Letters of support and other required documentation (can be submitted before or together with the application documents either in a sealed envelope or disclosed.)	Reference letters must carry a department's header and be duly signed Application for financial support of final phase of the doctorate Two reference letters of which one has to be from the supervisor including a justification why financing from the Research Fund is needed. Application for postdoc / clinical research <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Two reference letters Proof of any required approvals (ethical committee, Swiss committee for biological security, bioassays etc.) When necessary, confirmation of the exemption from duties for the required research time (for clinical researchers by the administration of the University Hospital).