Cashless fee payment for online degree program/doctorate applications

In accordance with section 3, para. 1 of the regulations regarding fees at the University of Basel (fees regulations), an application fee of CHF 100 (regular application) or CHF 250 (late application) is charged for degree program/doctorate applications.

Legal bases:

Regulations regarding fees at the University of Basel
Fees Central Student Administration

The application fee is paid online by means of card payment. Prospective students cannot submit their application until the application fee has been paid. The application fee will not be reimbursed or credited.

The following forms of payment are accepted:

Visa, Mastercard, Diners Club/Discover, UnionPay, JCB, and (in Switzerland) Postfinance and TWINT.

Both traditional credit cards and prepaid cards are accepted. Prepaid cards can be obtained as follows:

- From your bank: Packages for young people and students usually include the option of a prepaid card, either with no fees or at a very favorable rate.
- Swiss Bankers Travel Cash Card (Switzerland): This card can be obtained from various banks without the need for a bank account. For information on conditions and outlets, <https://www.swissbankers.ch/en/mastercard-prepaid/travel-cash/outlets.aspx>
- Kiosk: For information on conditions and outlets, see <http://www.kkiosk.ch/de/products/detail/?id=299>

Once you have made your payment, your application to study will be submitted and confirmed by email. If you do not receive a confirmation email, please check the status of your application and send it again if necessary.
